Passionate about communication

Goode Internatinal is passionate about communication - design, marketing, media and PR. Established in 1988, with offices in Reading and London, they have an open, honest and creative culture, building strong relationships and adopting a partnership approach to working with their clients.

Closer relationship

We worked on several projects, helping each other building a stronger expertise and a much closer relationship. Every project was a challenge, but also a lot of fun and discoveries. Projects range from flash headers and cd-rom interfaces to navigation systems and corporate presentations.
