Sell products online

The client just wanted a simple and powerful solution that could give him everything he needed to organise, display and sell products online. The system we provided has been developed with ease of use and security as the two key top of mind considerations.

Simple solution

Some of the features the system includes are:

- Feature specials or new products in shopfront.
- Client managed product catalogue.
- WYSIWYG (what you see is what you get) product descriptions managed via the administration console.
- Each product has an image, description, details and pricing.
- Visitor finds products either by searching for a particular product name, or browsing through the catalogue.
